WHAT IS UPWARD BOUND?

You may keep this for your records

CWC Upward Bound (UB) is a college preparatory program for high school students in Fremont County that is funded by the U.S. Department of Education and sponsored by Central Wyoming College. The purpose of Upward Bound is to strengthen academic skills of eligible high school students and prepare them to enter college and graduate with degrees.

WHAT SERVICES DOES UB PROVIDE?

1. Weekly meetings and online forums during the academic school year that provide:
 - Academic advising
 - Goal setting
 - Tutoring
 - Career planning
 - Enrichment classes and activities
 - Information about colleges, universities, and trade/technical schools
 - Assistance with post-secondary enrollment process, including:
 - Test prep for ACT
 - College application forms
 - Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
 - Housing applications
 - Scholarships
 - Earn up to $90 per quarter for attending meetings and achieving a 2.0 GPA or higher.
2. A summer program with opportunities to travel, make new friends, and change your life forever!
 - College visits with urban experiences
 - Camping trip with fun, educational activities

WHO CAN JOIN?

Students that meet the following federal TRiO eligibility criteria may be considered for selection if they:

- are 9th, 10th, 11th graders, or rising 12th graders that want to attend college
- commit to attending weekly meetings and at least one summer program component annually until graduation
- qualify as low income
 - or
 - are first-generation college students (neither parent has earned a 4-year degree)
 - or
 - show academic need (GPA of 2.5 or less, have not completed pre-algebra or algebra by the beginning of 10th grade, below proficient level on state assessments in reading or language arts or math)

HOW TO JOIN

Complete the UB Application and W-9 IRS form to receive quarterly stipends.

Options to submit forms include:

1. Return in person to your school's guidance counselor, a UB Coordinator, or Academic Coach.
2. Mail to:
CWC Upward Bound
2660 Peck Ave
Riverton, WY 82501
3. Scan and send email to: mhimes@cwcc.edu

After the UB staff reviews completed applications, the potential participant and guardian(s) will be contacted. If you have any questions, please call us at (307) 855-2047. Thank you for your interest in Upward Bound!

7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Requester's name and address (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
